Obituary

On September 14, 1956, James Lee Fields was born to Frank and Lola Fields in Indianapolis, Indiana. He was the younger of two children. At the age of nine he received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. The Lord used him in the gifts of Prophecy and Discernment he told his family and friends of many things that came to pass.

In 1968, the family moved to Los Angeles, California. James attended the Los Angeles Unified School District. He was under apprenticeship of his father, he learned various skills some of them being an demolition, construction for Fields Demolitions Company and went on to ABM Maintenance Services for approximately 15 years. The family united with Starlight C.O.G.I.C. under the leadership of Superintendent O. B. White. James was an active member he grew spiritually, he was a choir member, he did whatever his hands found to do.

*In 1980, Cynthia Belton met Elder and Mother Fields, later she met James in 1981. They married on September 4th, 1982; of this union five children were born. James loved his family and was a good provider, he loved to shower his wife and children with gifts. He liked to just be a father, doing the things a father would do with their children. James and his brother Gregory often took them fishing, to the amusement parks, to the beach, movies and so on. After the demise of Elder Frank Fields the family united with the Bright Star C.O.G.I.C. church family. Under the leadership of Superintendent Odell and Evangelist Addie Heard in October 2000. He was a member of the male choir. James departed this life September 22, 2004 at Martin Luther King Hospital. He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Cynthia Renee, Shirinda S., James L. Jr., Lavera R., Sherry T., James J., Jameka S., Jaleah C., Mother Lola Mae, Elder Frank Fields, who preceded him in death, one brother, Gregory, sister-in-law, Torchy of Inglewood, two grandchildren, Robin S. Polk, Jamalin Fields. And a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. His favorite songs these last months were Second Chance and Create in me a clean heart.*

A Special Moment

Tuesday, September 21, 2004

*Our last evening together we shared a really long conversation
James assured me that he had made peace with God.
And he had gave up everything he knew how to!
He told us don't worry I'm all right now.*

Daddy How I Will Miss You

Daddy how I will miss you and that's from the heart. Even though your gone our love will never part. Every time I think about you I almost come to tears. Because you were the best Father over the years. We had our ups and downs but that's just life, because I knew all you wanted to do was bring me up right. There's not a day that will go by that we will not miss your presence, but I know you will be rejoicing somewhere in heaven.

So Daddy all I want to say is I Love You.

I miss you and R.I.P.

Love Sherry

"Beyond Heaven Gates"

There's an open gate at the end of the road through which James Fields must go alone, and therein a light we cannot see that's Jesus coming to give him peace. Our father claims his own—beyond the gates, he find happiness and peace, and there is comfort that a loving God know best.

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much, whatever the part.*
